Did you know?

The early Church during the days of persecution referred to the Apostles' Creed as the Symbolum Apostolicum. An ancient source, Commentarius in Symbolum Apostolorum (A.D.404) states that in the days of the martyrs, "the creed or symbol functioned as a password, a sign or token whereby members of the Christian community could recognize one another".

Who is my Christ?

“But who do you say that I am?” This is the classic question Christ poses to His disciples in today’s gospel after questioning them about who do people say that He is.

What people say about Jesus Christ would be what we learn about Christ in our Bible reading, studying Scriptures, listening to homilies or encountering people who attests to the Christian faith. The Gospel selection that we have just proclaimed and all other selections from Scriptures are testimonies of faith rather than historical accounts.

The biography-type accounts about Christ are what remained of what the early believers collected together for the needs of their respective communities. We learn about Christ by way of the faith of the first Christians.

Our personal encounter with Jesus Christ happens through God’s gift of faith which is not a concept of idea. Christ is a person with Whom we relate. What we share about Him is an expression of our lived faith experience.

Faith is a movement from the Divine, that is captured by our human spirit. It is like lightning that strikes into our innermost soul.

When Peter answers Christ: “You are the Christ!”, the first pope personally recognizes the electric vitality of a faith that is bound to transform his life and the life of the Church he has to shepherd.

As we gather now a faith community, we all have to assess this gift of faith from the Father. Let us consider how we can render a matured response to this faith that is a fruit of attentive and intense reflection on Christ’s central role in our life.

Healing Corner: “But who do you say that I am?” Many feel so alone when they suffer the impacts of abuse. They may not see Christ as a place to turn to in time of need, but we can be the embodiment of Him and His teachings. Make yourself available to those who may need your support. We especially encourage parents of the children who participate to help out. Each lesson is set up by the coordinator in advance making the class very easy to manage.

Parking

Due to an increase of illegal activity with stolen vehicles in our parking lots, the parish has implemented strict parking rules that will remain year-round. If vehicles are left unattended without the knowledge of the parish for more than 24 hours, vehicles will be ticketed and/or towed at the owner's expense. Please also be advised that the parking authority is also watching for vehicles illegally parked in the handicapped stalls and at the entries and exits to the parking lots. The marked stall by the office entrance is reserved 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, for emergency personnel, staff and deliveries.

The Knights of Columbus is organizing a team to bike in support of Elizabeth House in this year's Ride for Refuge fundraiser. We would like to invite anyone interested in raising money for this wonderful organization that helps keep pregnant young women off the streets and offers them a loving home and skills to build their lives. These women are often the most vulnerable citizens in our community and with your support and help, we would like to raise $5000 to support this worthy cause. Friends and family members are welcome to join you and bike 20km; or if you prefer, there is a 10km route or a 5km route. The event takes place on September 29th in the beautiful Springbank area. For details on how you can fundraise and how to join our team, please contact Real Phaneuf 403 542 5228.

A 'Master Email List' is being compiled to enable the parish to send important notifications such as guest speakers, seasonal and special events electronically. The weekly bulletin can be emailed by request. With this, housebound parishioners can be updated with parish news and events. If you are in our Ministry list, your email address will be automatically placed on the Master List. (If you do not wish to be on this list, please advise the office.) You may complete the form below and place it in the collection basket or donation slots or drop it off at the office.
