The Church Says:

Grace encompasses a wealth of meaning, a form of God's presence, God's gift to us. Grace is undeserved, cannot be earned, and flows from God. Grace results in our participation in the life of God, through Jesus, whose Death and Resurrection made us adopted sons and daughters of God, sharing in God's own divine nature, and heirs to eternal life.

In Baptism we are made holy—sanctified—making us a new person, a new creation. We call this sanctifying or habitual grace, that is, the grace of Baptism gifts us to live out this new life. Actual grace describes God's continual help throughout our lives. Although we make these distinctions, the important fact is that grace demonstrates the tremendous love of God for us. Through God's Covenant with us, many graces, or gifts, are poured into our lives empowering us to attain and grow in union with God. We are free to respond to God's grace by leading a life of good deeds or to reject the gifts God offers.

Pastoral Notes by Fr. Edmund
Our Human Blindness

The blind man's cure by Jesus in the Gospel today reveals who it is that is truly blind: those who stubbornly refuse to accept Jesus as the light of the world. Social sin is not the same as original sin, but flows from it, and is the accumulation of human choices to turn away from the light. The dramatic unfolding of John's story gives eloquent expression to the way individuals in a community compound their blindness. Everyone gets involved: the man's neighbors, his family, those have seen him begging, the Pharisees, the evil spread like a plague until in an act the man is expelled from the synagogue for acknowledging Jesus as the Messiah.

God's choice of David over his other brothers in the First Book of Samuel speaks of our own inability to see spiritual truth as God sees it. David is portrayed as the least likely to be the candidate for divine election. God sees into the heart and directs the prophet to choose and anoint the young David and consecrate him to be shepherd and king of God's people. The blindness of those around David to his potential as God's chosen leader speaks of how sin can blind us to God's will for us.

"By the mystery of the Incarnation, he has led the human race that walked in darkness into the radiance of the faith and has brought those born in slavery to ancient sin through the waters of regeneration to make them your adopted children..." (Preface)

As we gather, we ask God to let His light penetrate the darkness of our lives, shining forth in goodness, righteousness and truth. We seek His light and long to be become children of His light, good and pleasing in His sight.

Just as Jesus opens the eyes of the blind man to the wonders of belief in God's son, God opens our eyes, through baptism and the other sacraments, to see His mighty works. God call on us to believe, to worship and to follow His Son. God call us to become enlightened children of the light of God.

Parish Band—We are planning to form a parish band this coming spring. If you are interested and have experience in playing a musical instrument, please contact Michael Scholfield to set up an audition time. For more information contact Fr. Edmund or Michael at 587 578 9927 or email to mcscholfield@gmail.com

Good Friday Collection—The Pontifical Collection for the benefit of the Holy Places is scheduled to take place on Good Friday, March 30. Our parish is called to support Christians in the Holy Land. Many Christians in the Holy Land depend on the collection for their lives. As a Pontifical collection requested by Pope Francis, the annual Good Friday collection helps to maintain not only the Holy Places above all, but also the pastoral, welfare, educational and social works that the Church carries out to the benefit of the Christian brothers and sisters and the local population.

Healing Corner. God is available to forgive all our transgressions and heal us. If we have been the aggressive one in our families we can seek out the resources available in our community and His help will support us in our journey. Take responsibility and be the model for your children and others around you. If we and our children have been harmed by interpersonal violence our responsibility is to our and their safety, physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Seek help. For resources to help you, contact www.connectnetwork.ca

Ministry Sign-Up for Holy Week—Sign up sheets for Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Ushers, Sacristans and Altar Servers can be found at the back of the church along the west wall. Your help is greatly appreciated! We also need 12 volunteer 'apostles' to have their feet washed on Holy Thursday.

CWL—All women are invited to a talk, sponsored by Holy Name CWL, at Holy Name Hall (2223 34 St SW) on Tuesday, March 13th at 7 PM. The topic is Discovery House, a shelter which provides housing and therapeutic programs to 650 abused women and their children each year.

Carpet Mats Needed—We are in need of finding 20-30 sample carpet mats to be used for the classroom. Anyone who may know where we can get some of these donated, please contact the office.

Rejoice in God's Mercy

The Diocese of Calgary invites you to re-discover the meaning of the sacrament of Reconciliation in your life. In addition to the regular parish schedule, the sacrament of Reconciliation will be available at parishes throughout the Diocese of Calgary all the Wednesdays of Lent from 7:30-8:30pm.

The image of the crucifix is itself a prayer for many Catholics. We are encouraged to rest our eyes upon the crucifix and see the One, who has created all things. As you ponder the meaning of the Cross, above all consider this: God chose that His only Son suffer upon the Cross so that we might be healed. Action: What can you do to die to self during this week of Lent? Which virtues will help you to glorify God in this way?

God's Squad Men's Conference—Though we do not live in a time where the Catholic Faith is threatened as was the Judaism of Esther's generation, we need committed disciples of Jesus Christ. Teenagers and men with conviction who will recognize God has called us to be Catholics "for such a time as this" because we live in a generation where there are many forces intent on undermining Catholic faith, identity and practice. This year's conference will be held at St. Peter's on the evening of March 16th from 6-9 PM and March 17th from 9-4 PM. Speakers: Fathers Jerome Lavigne, Jonathan Gibson, Cristino Bouvette and Raymond de Souza. If you are 14 or over, please join us so that we can discover more how to form the virtues of courage, strength and unity. For more information and to register please go to WWW.GODSQUAD.CA.

Man of the Shroud Exhibit—St. Peter's Parish is excited to bring back the "Man of the Shroud" exhibit during Holy Week and beyond. The Shroud Exhibit which is a 14' long and 3' wide replica of the Shroud of Turin (the most studied Relic in the history of the world) will be on display at St. Peter's Church from Friday, March 23 to Tuesday, April 10, 2018. Shroud experts will be available for guided tours and talks. Visit www.st-peters.ca for more information.

A 'Master Email List' is being compiled to enable the parish to send important notifications such as guest speakers, seasonal and special events electronically. The weekly bulletin can be emailed by request. With this, housebound parishioners can be updated with parish news and events. If you are in our Ministry list, your email address will be automatically placed on the Master List. (If you do not wish to be on this list, please advise the office.) You may complete the form below and place it in the collection basket or donation slots or drop it off at the office. You can also accept the invitation on our Facebook page, or by emailing or phoning the office.
