The Shepherd Speaks Fr. Eli

Pope Francis has declared that the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time is to be devoted to the celebration, study, and dissemination of the Word of God that the life of our people be constantly marked by this decisive focus on the centrality of the Bible for Christians.

This weekend, we pray and bless the Ministers of the Word that are serving in our parish of St. James. We express our deep appreciation for the greatness of their hearts to proclaim the Word of God by the ministry they lead. May God's living Word nourish these men and women of God, be transformed by it, and faithfully announce to our sisters and brothers in Christ.

Why is the Word of God so powerful and effective? It is because it is not just spoken word, but it is a Being, a Person and indeed, it is God Himself. The Apostle John expressed it so eloquently in the Prologue of his Gospel. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God and the Word was God. The Word is God Himself. And the Word did not remain abstract and distant from us. And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us. Jesus Christ is the Word made flesh.

In the Gospel today, Jesus proclaimed to His listeners in the synagogue, "today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." Jesus is the fulfillment of Sacred Scripture for He is Himself the Word of God.

He has come to fulfill the Good News to the poor, to give freedom to the captives and slaves, to heal the sick and to come to the aid of those in need. But it does not stop there. Clearly then in the mind of Jesus, He is not only the Word of God Incarnate. Rather, the Word of God is also meant to be lived, to be incarnated to us, to be seen in our thoughts, words, and deeds.

Today's readings challenge us to read, hear and put into practice the saving and liberating Word of God, transforming our lives to live in charity, honesty, righteousness, compassion, and generosity. Nehemiah and Luke are inviting us that our lives be a Gospel that brings Good News to others.

Remember, you are writing a Gospel, a chapter each day, by the deeds that you do and the words that you say. People around you, your children and your friends read what you write, if it is false or true, now what is the Gospel according to you?

We need to have a Bible and to read and study the Bible and be filled with the Word of God, the Word of Eternal Life. We need to have time to feed our soul and nurture it with the Word of Life that comes from God.

When was the last time you opened your Bible? How do we find ways to also invite and encourage our family members to read the Bible? I invite you to begin reading and sharing the Word of God in your families. Read the Sunday readings and have time with your loved ones by sharing the bible verses and the Word of God that touches you most.

We must begin somewhere reading the Word of God. It is a way of life, a habit forming of ones' heart, mind, and soul. Find Bible Prayer Groups who are doing Bible Study and Faith-Sharing once a week and please join them. You will find these groups within your family too, celebrating our giftedness as One Body of Christ, looking after one another to grow in our faith.

Always remember that the Word of God can redirect our will, cleanse our emotions, enlighten our mind, and nurture our whole human being. Amen.

Entering the Ordinary Time

During the Ordinary Time, the Church celebrates the fullness of the mystery of the Lord Jesus. The people of God offer praise by celebrating the Paschal Mystery of the Death and Resurrection of Jesus. Sunday is the original Christian Feast Day, following the tradition handed down from Apostolic times, for this way the day of the Lord's Resurrection.

Today's Christian communities continue this tradition by celebrating every Sunday as the day of the risen Lord. (Source: ORDO)
